

TEACHER'S DAY CELEBRATION BY AKSHAR STUDENTS

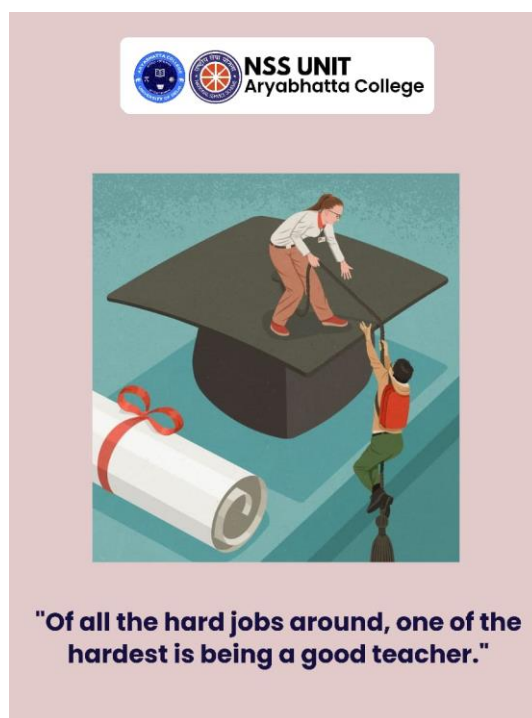

An initiative by NSS Aryabhata Unit, University of Delhi

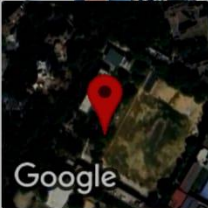

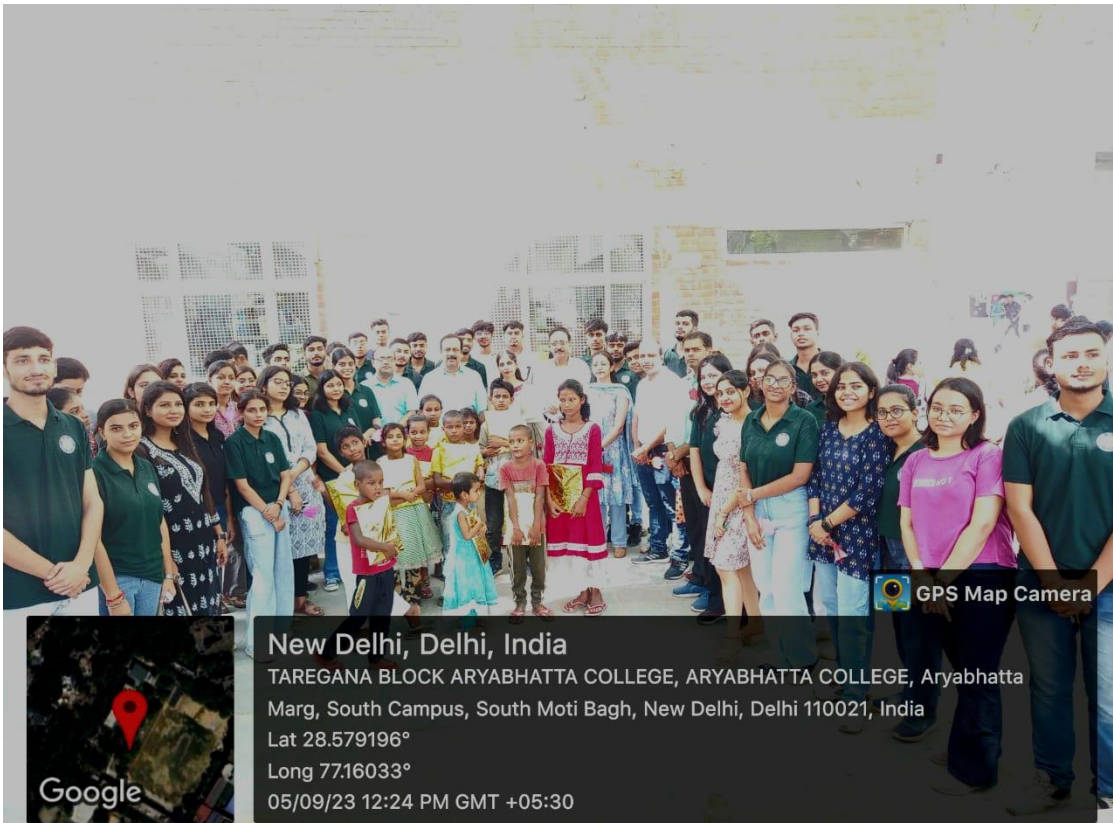

The 5th of September is observed as Teacher's Day in honor of the birth anniversary of Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, who served as the first Vice-President and second President of Independent India. Aryabhata College's NSS Unit undertook a laudable initiative to educate several underprivileged children from a nearby construction site, known as Project Akshar. This Teacher's Day celebration featured the distribution of color kits to enhance the children's painting and drawing skills, fostering creativity and imbuing their lives with the beauty of artistic expression, utilizing various colors and techniques.

The same group of children expressed their gratitude by presenting handmade origami flowers to the teachers and volunteers of NSS. This event was presided over by Professor J.K. Singh. Around 51 NSS volunteers participated in the event.

During the celebration, the 11 students from Akshar, performed dance and poem recitations to pay homage to the teachers and NSS volunteers. As the event drew to a close, Professor J.K. Singh extended his wishes to the teachers and shared words of enlightenment with the students.

Subsequently, the students from Akshar proceeded to the staff room to convey their wishes to all the teaching members. Finally, refreshments were graciously provided to both the Akshar students and NSS volunteers, marking the conclusion of this memorable occasion.
